to the Highlands. Whiteball, Odober 12. By Letters from Berwick of the 7th Inflant there is Advice, that upon the 4th the Garrison of the table of Edinburgh, under Favour of a great Fire of their Cannon from the Half moon, made a Trench croft the Caffle [H], half way between the Gate and the Houses, 14 Feet broad and 16 deep, and from the Parapet, made by the Earth dug out of the Trench on the Side near the Castle, with the Fire of 200-Men of the Garrison, elear'd the Street. Upon the 5th, by the help of the Town's People, they obtain'd twenty Black Lattle, 2 Quantity of Bread and Ale, and Water from the Refervoir. About Five that Evening, a confiderable Detachment of the Rebels march'd up to the Castle Hill, to attack the Party of the Garrison in the Trench, who retreated into the Castle upon their Approach without losing a Man; the Rebels, in treeping up the South Side of the Hill, had twenty of their About Nine the Men kill'd by the Cannon from the Castle. Jame Night, between 4 and 5000 of them march'd in the Town from their Camp, and remain'd in it all Night, but none of them durit appear within the Reach of the Carnon: They were employing all the Farriers about the Town to shoes their Hories, and gave out that they intended to march upon the 8th towards Berwick, with 9000 Mens. On Friday Glenbucker-and Lord Oguvy join'd them with a Reinforcement of 700 Men. They will not fuffer any Provisions to be carried out to the Fox Man of War, lying in the Road-of Leith, and the Captain of that Ship has taken Care to prevent any Vesiel crolling the Firth. They had order'd the Landlords of all the Houses of Edinburgh to pay in Half a-Crown in the Pound, of all their Rents as upon the 7th, upon Pain of Military Ex-Several People had been robb'd by them upon the Highway; and they had pillaged all the Country round

Briftol Odober, 14. Vefterday the Right Worshipful William Barnes, Eig. Mayor, Mr. Justice Foster, Recorder, and he Worshipful the Aldermen, together with the rest of the Corporation of this City, attended by a great Number of the prinipal Inhabitants, attembled at the Guildhall, when his Grace he Duke of Newcastle's Letter was publickly read, authozing the Magistrates (as from his Majesty) to call the City to ms, and to martial them into Troops or Companies, at their iscretion; as also for them to appoint proper Officers to the espective Corps; his Majesty being highly pleased with the Leal and Unanimity of to confiderable a Branch of his Subjects, and with the Loyalty which they profess for his Person and Ge-After this was read, an Affociation was entered ate for the Support of the Common Caufe, when the Mayor biribed rootol, in the Name of the Chamber, and the after of the Society and Company of Merchants 5000 l in the ame of the whole Society; which was followed by a generous bleription, of the whole Rerio " No riffrates, fome of om subscribed apiece 200, and 1001. is generous for wall Street and many of the ntlemen and Marcalante whom feribed 300, 20, and 1001, aprece for me ar a sudable Loyal Pre . and continued in doing the vive of Courses

London, October, 17. Letters from Newcassle advise, that 12,000 Danes are arriv'd; 6000 of whom are gone to Shields, and the others order'd to Scotland.

We have certain Advice from Scotland, that 200 of ont Troops, lately made Prisoners by the Rebels, had made their Escape, and join'd those under the Command of General Blakeney, at Sterling-Castle. The Troops of Sweden, taken into British Pay, will very foon be put into a Condition of embarking; and, as the Palfage is very short, and the North Highlanders very well affected to his Majesty's Service, there feems to be no Reason to doubt, that the Rebell will very foon be made fensible of the Rashness and Temerity, as well as the Ingratitude and Iniquity of their Undertaking.

They write from Doncaster in Yorkshire, that Numbers of his Majesty's Forces arrive daily at the Camp near that Place; the Men are in the highest Spirits, and that no Strife sublists in that Neighbourhood, but who shall contribute most to their Actommodation, and to the Good of the common Cause. The Camp abounds with the greatest Plenty of all Kinds of Provifions, Beef being allowed them at three Halfpence per Pound, and Bread in Proportion, provided by Jacob Gomez Serra, Eigs Commissary-General of his Majesty's Forces in the North.

By the last Advices from Copenhagen, the French Minister there began to lose Ground daily; and fome Propositions made to that trown on the Part of Sweden, for a Convention among the Northern Powers, for maintaining the Peace and Independency of the German Empire, are faid to be fo w-ll relified, that there is Reason to hope a Negotiation well be speedily begun, in order to ripen them into an Alliance.
